

Students of JSS PS honour Ancillary Staff.

In keeping with the focus of the month of May “ Bridges to A Better World” the students of JSS PS dedicated a celebration for the ancillary staff of the school.

The annual “Celebrated Helping Hands”, program was hosted by the students of the Hope and Happiness club to pay tribute to the tireless efforts meted out by them .

The day began with a “ Tug of War” for the male staff which was followed by another session for the female staff.

A cultural program was hosted in the school auditorium by the students. The students of Grade 4 and 5 extended their welcome to the monitors and drivers in English, Hindi, Telugu, Tamil and Malayalam. Students of the senior grades also entertained them with a song and a popular dance. They were also privileged to listen to a perfect medley of music by the teachers of the music department.

The Principal Ms. Chitra Sharma and Head Mistress Ms. Bindu Rajiv addressed the gathering and recognized and thanked them for their dedication and hard work. Each member was presented a token of appreciation from the students. It was truly a day of celebration which ended with a lunch treat by the school management.

