Our trip to motion gate

A week ago, we got a message from our teacher. When I read it, I almost exploded with happiness and excitement. It read about a field trip on 19th of November, and to where? Motion gate! I love motion gate as it has many rides that are scary and loaded with fun! I couldn’t wait till that day. A few days past by and to my surprise it was 18th of November! That was the night I seriously couldn’t sleep. I was thinking about which ride to go first and what to prepare for the trip. I finally slept at almost 12 o’clock in the night. You cannot imagine that in the middle of the night I woke up, thinking that the new day had finally begun.

After a few more hours, I heard my mom calling to me, so that I would wake up. In fact, I don’t wake up so easily. But this time, it was different. The moment my mom called me, I woke up at once. I dressed up in my PE uniform and blue jeans. I grabbed my cap, drank my milk, ate some fruits and rushed to the bus stop. Guess what! For the first time, I arrived before the bus did! I sat comfortably in the bus and the bus driver dropped us to school. As we reached, I entered my class and noticed that all the children were jumping up and down with joy and exhilaration. Our class teacher, Ms. Saniya then informed us about all the rules and regulations we needed to follow. She had divided our class into two separate groups with two teachers and leaders as, a single teacher could not handle the whole class.
One of the groups held all the boys and the other held all the girls. There were further subdivisions in these groups that had their own leaders. After the instructions, we boarded to our specific buses that accommodated two classes, 6A, my class and 6B. On the way, I sat with two of my good friends and we played games and thought about the trip all along.

The bus drive continued for about one whole hour. Later, we saw the motion gate logo and were curious about the fun we will have. One by one, we got down the stairs of the bus. Then we started to walk towards the wonderful place full of fun! On the way, we took many photos, in which all the faces were filled with enthusiasm. As we walked further and further, we could see all the thrilling rides. We all raced toward them.

Our first ride was the famous ride called Madagascar. It was a good starter. Me and my friends waited for our chance to arrive. As we were waiting in the cue, we saw that the children who completed their ride wanted to go once again. Later we got our turn. I put my glasses, cap and bag inside a box that they provided. At first, the roller coaster was going slow but then, it zoomed and rushed through the tunnels. The wind was blowing fiercely on our faces. We took many twists and turns and then returned to the exit point. Though our ride was short, it was amazing! We got out of the ride. But then I noticed that I had forgotten my cap! But I didn’t take tension and thought that I would grab it the next time I arrive at the ride.

Then, we went to the next ride, The Bullet train. Unfortunately, there was some electrical issue in that, so we had to leave. A ride called Drop Down was frightening. In that ride my stomach started to act weird and I almost lost my breath!
Similarly, we did many other stunning rides like Hotel Transylvania, Green hornet, Now You See Me, Kung Fu Panda, How to Train a Dragon and many more. There was even a ride in which me and my friends even got soaked completely in water! That was not it! We had plenty of hours left. We decided to go to the Bullet train once more as we thought that the technical issue had been fixed. We got into the waiting cue which was about thirty minutes long. But I wasn’t giving up! I had to try this ride! A few minutes later, it was our turn. I knew I had made an excellent choice waiting in the cue. But when the ride began, I screamed with terror, as the roller coaster went into twists and turns and a 360 degrees circle too!

Then, we decided to go for the Madagascar ride once more. I kept all my loose belongings in the provided box. The ride began once more. I also noticed that the ride was going faster than before. When the ride ended, I started to look for my bag and glasses. I found my bag, but my glasses had been misplaced probably by a staff member. I finally found it and wore it above my nose. Though, I couldn’t see clearly. Then I realized that one of its lenses were missing. I got shocked, as I cannot see clearly without my glasses. I asked one of the ride attendants to find it for me as they were the ones who lost it. I could say that they understood the trouble I would face without my glasses so they bent down to look for it. After a few minutes of looking, they couldn’t find it, and so, I got tensed.

But fortunately, they found it! I thanked him a lot! I understood my mistake and then after, I always kept it in my bag. We all were then bursting with hunger after all that walking and running. We took our coupons that our teacher supplied us with to get our meal. We arrived to the food shop and took our box. It had a heavy meal of burger and French fries along with orange juice and water. After eating our food, we decided to go to a ride called the High Roller.
As the name describes, we knew that the ride was another roller coaster. We waited patiently for our turn. After about fifteen minutes, we were finally ahead of the cue that formed behind us. We placed our belongings in a shelf and then boarded the ride. I really loved this ride as well. It was speedy all along. Later, when I looked at my friend’s watch, I saw that it was 3:50 sharp and we had to assemble at 4:15 near the fountain as to disperse. Now, we had the time for only one ride. We all really loved the Bullet train, so we went there once again.

On the way, we saw a person, from another school who got hurt on her chin. She was crying in pain. Then I felt a little scared but I wanted to go to the ride.

Sadly, the cue was a lot but I am not the person who would give up. My friends and me lined up in the cue and crossed our fingers for this last ride.

We had to wait for a long time but then the attendants called out for the seats of three people, that was where we got lucky and went in front of the whole cue. We were glad that we got a chance. We shook the belt on to our waists and then the ride began. Our ride was over and we rushed towards the meeting point. We saw that there was another ride there called the Haunted House in which we really wanted to go but unhappily, we couldn’t go. Instead, our class started playing tag. We were having a blast! The buses then arrived and we knew that it was the end of the day. Overall, the journey to Motion Gate was overwhelming and immense. This was the best field trip ever!
ECONOMIC NEWS
The UAE Central Bank says real GDP will grow by 7.6 percent this year, instead of its previous expectation of 6.5 percent.

In its Q3 Review, the apex bank attributed the upward review to the robust performance of some non-oil sectors, including tourism, hospitality, real estate and manufacturing.

The review expected the non-oil GDP to grow by 6.1 percent in 2022, against 4.3 percent previously, with the oil GDP to expectedly grow by 11 percent this year.

The report explained that the overall real GDP continued to grow at a strong pace in Q3 following a significant growth in H1, underpinned by a rise in oil production and improvement in real non-oil GDP, as well as removal of most COVID-19-related restrictions.

It was also buoyed by the recovery in the global travel and tourism sector, boom in the real estate and construction sectors, and the expansion of manufacturing activities, and various global events.
Female students in Afghanistan have been banned from universities in the latest blow to women's rights under the Taliban. Women and girls are barred from public and private universities "until further notice", a statement from the Taliban-led Ministry of Higher Education said.

Millions of girls are barred from attending school under rules enforced by the Taliban. While girls in primary school are generally allowed to attend classes, restrictions remain and vary from province to province. Women and girls have held protests across the country, demanding they be let back into the classroom. The latest decision is another sign the Taliban is tightening restrictions on Afghanistan's millions of female adults and children after hollow public claims its takeover would not affect women's rights.

The decision is the "final nail in the coffin", said journalist Deepa Parent.

The Taliban have continued to exclude women from public life, barring them from parks and hammams this month. They have also resumed executions and public floggings, sparking fears of a return to their iron-fist rule of the 1990s. Girls' schools that have stayed open have been targeted by extremists.

In September, at least 35 people — mostly women — were killed in a suicide bombing as they prepared for university entrance exams in the Dasht-e-Barchi neighborhood of Kabul. Six people were killed at a high school in the same neighborhood in April, and in May last year a bombing killed 85 at a girls' school.

SPORTS NEWS
PARIS — France forward Karim Benzema indicated he is retiring from internationals in a post on social networks on Monday, a day after the team lost the World Cup final without him.

After earning the Ballon d’Or as the world’s top player to crown his remarkable rise, Benzema’s dream of winning the World Cup ended before the tournament in Qatar when he tore a left thigh muscle in training with Les Bleus.

“I made the effort and the mistakes it took to be where I am today and I’m proud of it! I have written my story and ours is ending,” Benzema wrote on his 35th birthday, in a post accompanied by a picture of him in a France shirt.

The Real Madrid striker was France’s top scorer at the 2014 World Cup but did not play in the country’s victorious 2018 World Cup campaign because he was still exiled from the national team for his alleged role in a sex-tape scandal with then-France teammate Mathieu Valbuena.

The fallout from that scandal led to a dramatic fall from grace for Benzema. He faced a nationwide deluge of vitriol and scathing criticism, including on the political level. It led to a long exclusion from the national team from October 2015 until his recall by Deschamps in May last year.

With his relationship with Deschamps repaired, Benzema scored freely for France with 10 goals in 16 games after his return to reach 37 overall, and he formed a great partnership with Kylian Mbappe.
India's stand-in skipper KL Rahul suffered a blow to his hand during practice but the touring side are optimistic the opener will play the second and final test against Bangladesh beginning on Thursday.
India, who won the opening test in Chittagong by 188 runs and are pushing for a 2-0 sweep, missed the service of regular skipper Rohit Sharma who missed the series with an injured thumb.
"It doesn't (look serious)," India batting coach Vikram Rathour told reporters on Wednesday.
"He seems to be fine. Hopefully he'll be okay. The doctors are looking at it, but hopefully he'll be okay."
Should Rahul miss the match in Mirpur, vice-captain Cheteshwar Pujara is likely to lead the side.
Rahul's injury could mean a test debut for opener Abhimanyu Easwaran who was added to the squad following Rohit's injury.
India's pace duo of Jasprit Bumrah and Mohammed Shami and allrounder Ravindra Jadeja are among the several frontline players missing the series with injuries.
IN the wake of Sunday’s (Dec 18) World Cup final, football fans around the world have rushed to buy merchandise, with demand for Lionel Messi and Kylian Mbappe football club jerseys more than tripling, sports merchandise retailer Fanatics told Reuters. Argentina beat France 4-2 on penalties after a dramatic 3-3 draw, with Messi scoring twice and France’s Mbappe netting three times. It was Argentina’s first World Cup win since Diego Maradona hoisted the trophy 36 years ago.

Global sales of football gear were up more than 700 per cent for the 2022 World Cup in Qatar versus the 2018 World Cup in Russia across the Fanatics network of online stores. Fans flocked to buy Nike-brand Paris Saint-Germain (PSG) football club jerseys, with sales in particular for Messi and Mbappe jerseys on the official PSG online store surging by more than 200 per cent on Sunday.

Messi, Argentina’s 35-year-old team captain, said the final would be his last match in the World Cup, though he intends to play a few more games for the national side. Mbappe also shone with three goals in the game, becoming only the second hat-trick scorer in a World Cup final after England’s Geoff Hurst in 1966.
Elon Musk projected that Twitter Inc would reach a cash flow break even in 2023, a Bloomberg reporter tweeted on Wednesday. In a Twitter Spaces session, Musk attributed this to cost cutting measures he had undertaken at the social media platform recently.

Since taking over Twitter on Oct. 27, Musk has laid off 50% of the company’s employees and demanded remaining staff commit to long hours and a “hardcore” culture, prompting more employee departures. The controversial moves have rattled advertisers, who contribute 90% of Twitter’s revenue.

“We have an emergency fire drill on our hands,” Musk said. “That’s the reason for my actions.”

Musk said Twitter was previously on track to spend $5 billion next year. With $12.5 billion in debt due to the acquisition, Twitter was facing a net cash outflow of $6.5 billion with revenue of about $3 billion next year. That amounted to negative cash flow of $3 billion, Musk said.
Nepal’s top court ordered on Wednesday the release and deportation of Charles Sobhraj, the French serial killer portrayed in the Netflix series 'The Serpent' who was responsible for a string of murders across Asia in the 1970s. The Supreme Court ruled Sobhraj, 78, who has been in prison in the Himalayan republic since 2003 for murdering two North American tourists, should be freed on health grounds.

"Keeping him in the prison continuously is not in line with the prisoner’s human rights," read a copy of the verdict seen by AFP.

"If there is not any other pending cases against him to keep him in the prison, this court orders his release by today and... the return to his country within 15 days."

Sobhraj needed open heart surgery and his release was in keeping with the law allowing the compassionate discharge of bedridden prisoners who had already served three-quarters of their sentence, the verdict added.
Ukrainian President Volodymyr Zelensky could travel to Washington, meet President Joe Biden and visit the Congress on Wednesday, sources familiar with the matter said, in his first known overseas trip since the beginning of the Russia-Ukraine crisis on February 24.

The two leaders were expected to meet at the White House, a source said. The visit by Zelensky would coincide with Biden's intent to send Patriot missiles to the Kyiv government, CNN reported, to protect it from heavy Russian bombardment.

CNN also reported, citing two sources, that Zelensky was already on his way to Washington.
SRI LANKA: EX-PM MAHINDA RAJAPAKSA SAYS HE WILL CONTINUE TO SUPPORT WICKREMESINGHE

Sri Lanka’s former prime minister Mahinda Rajapaksa addressed his first public meeting on Saturday since he was forced to resign in May and ouster of his younger brother and former president Gotabaya Rajapaksa in July. While addressing a public meeting organised by his party Sri Lanka Podujana Peramuna (SLPP) at Kalutara here, 77-year-old Mahinda initially got confused as to who was the current president of the country. An aide whispered to him to correct him when he mentioned Gotabaya as the president. Quickly correcting his mistake, Mahinda said, “We will continue to support President Ranil Wickremesinghe to defend this government. He was our opponent, now he is with us.”

The entire Rajapaksa clan was forced to resign from the government earlier this year following violent countrywide protests against them for leading the island nation to its worst economic crisis since independence in 1948.
SAUDI PLANS 2KM-TALL SKYSCRAPER, OVER DOUBLE THE HEIGHT OF DUBAI’S BURJ KHALIFA

Plans for a skyscraper that will become the world’s tallest building are currently in the works in Saudi Arabia, according to reports by MEED.

The new mega project, estimated to reach a height of 2km, will be over double the height of the world’s tallest building – Dubai’s Burj Khalifa, which is 828 metres tall – upon completion.

The tower will be part of an 18sq km development in Riyadh; a site adjacent to King Khalid International airport has reportedly been identified for construction.

According to contractors, and based on prices of existing towers in the region, the final structure could cost about $5 billion to construct.

A design competition has also been announced, say sources close to the project, with developers, architects, construction specialists and project managers invited to take part and design the mega building.

Hollywood star Johnny Depp, who was dropped from future Pirates of the Caribbean films following ex-wife Amber Heard's op-ed, still seems to hold fancy of the franchise's long-time producer Jerry Bruckheimer.

According to Fox News, a USA-based news outlet, during a recently published interview with The Hollywood Reporter, Bruckheimer was asked if Depp was "somebody a studio like Disney would put front and centre again in a Pirates sequel?" The outlet reported that he responded by saying, "You'd have to ask them. I can't answer that question. I really don't know. I would love to have him in the movie. He's a friend, a terrific actor, and it's unfortunate that personal lives creep into everything we do."

Depp and Heard's defamation trial against each other concluded in June 2022, when a jury found both celebrities liable for defamation but awarded Depp more than USD8 million in damages.
A THOUSAND TALES BALLET TO PREMIERE AT DUBAI OPERA

A Thousand Tales, a new ballet production that promises to bring your favourite childhood tales to life, will premiere at Dubai Opera on January 6 and 7, 2023.

Presenting an original narrative inspired by various childhood literary classics, including Cinderella, Sleeping Beauty, Snow White, Aladdin, and many more, A Thousand Tales boasts original choreographed routines from the celebrated Francesco Ventriglia, who is a graduate of the La Scala Ballet School, former soloist at the La Scala Theatre Ballet, and the co-founder and Artistic Director of the Sydney Choreographic Centre.

The ballet is set to music composed by the acclaimed contemporary composer Alexey Shor and is based on a new libretto written by Ventriglia himself. Audiences are invited to travel along on a magical adventure within this fantasy world, which features a series of stunning costumes and exquisite set decorations designed by the award-winning Roberta Guidi di Bagno.
Blockbusters like Top Gun: Maverick, Black Panther: Wakanda Forever and Avatar: The Way of Water, and pop stars like Lady Gaga, Taylor Swift and Rihanna just got one step closer to getting Oscar nominations. The Academy of Motion Picture Arts and Sciences on Wednesday announced shortlists in 10 categories for the 95th Oscars, including documentary feature, international film, makeup and hairstyling, score, original song, sound, visual effects and shorts.

Alejandro González Iñárritu’s Bardo, False Chronicle of a Handful of Truths was along the 15 films shortlisted in the international film category, one of the most competitive. The category also includes already decorated films like Holy Spider (Denmark), All Quiet on the Western Front (Germany), Saint Omer (France), Corsag” (Austria), EO (Poland), Return to Seoul (Cambodia), Decision to Leave (South Korea), Close (Belgium) and Argentina, 1985 (Argentina).

Recipe Tips & FAQ's

How to make french toast without milk?
Any plant-based milk can be used as a substitute for regular milk (or cream) to make a custard. If you don’t have any of these, then use a very small amount of water (about 1 tablespoon per 2 eggs). If using water, note that you will end up with an eggier French toast— we recommend mixing in some ground cinnamon, vanilla, and a pinch of salt to add flavor and cut the "scrambled egg" flavor.
SIMPLE GINGERBREAD COOKIES!

THIS RECIPE FOR SUPER EASY GINGERBREAD COOKIES WITHOUT MOLASSES CAN BE MADE COMPLETELY FROM START TO FINISH IN LESS THAN 30 MINUTES! THIS SLIGHTLY MILD VERSION OF THE CLASSIC COOKIE REQUIRES FEW INGREDIENTS AND IS A NO-CHILL DOUGH!

Prep time 15 MINUTES
Cook time 10 MINUTES
Total time 25 MINUTES

INGREDIENTS

2 sticks (1 cup, 8 oz, 224 gr) unsalted butter, cold and cut into small cubes (important that the butter is cold so the dough doesn’t need to be chilled)
2 1/2 cups (20 oz, 500 gr) lightly packed dark brown sugar (you can also use light brown sugar for a more mild flavor)
2 large eggs, cold
1/2 tsp kosher salt
1 TBSP ground ginger
2 tsp ground cinnamon
1/2 tsp ground clove (optional, but recommended)
1/2 tsp allspice (optional, but recommended)
4 cups (17 oz, 476 gr) all-purpose flour (measured properly)
INSTRUCTIONS

1. Preheat your oven to 350 F (170 C). Line two sheet pans with parchment paper and set aside.
2. Put the cold cubed butter and brown sugar in the bowl of a stand mixer fit with a paddle attachment, or in a large bowl with a hand mixer. Mix the butter and sugar on medium speed for about 3 minutes, until well combined. It won’t really be creamed. Scrape down the sides and bottom of the bowl with a rubber spatula.
3. Add the egg, salt, ginger, cinnamon, clove, and allspice (if using) to the bowl. Mix for 1 minute more on medium speed until all the ingredients are incorporated. Scrape down the bowl again.
4. With the mixer running on low speed, slowly add the flour into the bowl. Mix just until combined. This will be a very thick dough, and you may need to knead it gently with your hands until it comes together.
5. Gather the dough together into a ball and divide it in half. Lightly flour a clean work surface and start with half of the dough. Lightly flour the top of the dough and a rolling pin. Roll out to about 1/4”-1/3” thick. Thicker will produce softer cookies and thinner will produce crispier cookies. Alternatively, you can roll the dough between 2 pieces of parchment paper.
6. Cut out your cookies and place them on a parchment or silicone mat lined baking sheet.
7. Bake at 350 F (170 C) for 9-12 minutes. I like my cookies cut out 1/3” thick and baked for about 10 minutes. This produces cookies with slightly crispy edges and soft centers. Longer baking times will produce crispier cookies.
8. If you are decorating the cookies with candies and sprinkles, as I did in the pictures, press them into the cookies when they are still hot. If you are frosting the cookies, allow them to cool completely first. I like to use this super simple 3 ingredient icing.
9. Store cooled cookies in an airtight container at room temperature for up to 5 days.

Caramel Macchiato!

Try this homemade recipe of the most popular Starbucks drink – Caramel Macchiato! Lightly sweetened vanilla milk mixed with smoky (homemade!) espresso and topped with buttery caramel sauce. This Starbucks Caramel Macchiato recipe is not to be missed!

Ingredients:
- 14 oz reduced fat or whole milk
- 2 tbsp. vanilla syrup
- 2 oz espresso
- caramel sauce, to drizzle

Instructions:
1. Prepare the espresso using a macchinetta or espresso machine. (You may use a very strong regular coffee, but you'll need to double the amount: use 4 oz instead of 2).
2. While the espresso is being made, warm up the milk. Froth the milk using milk frother. If you don't have a milk frother, you can use a regular whisk instead. (Just whisk the milk until foam forms).
3. Pour the espresso into a measuring cup.
4. Add vanilla and milk to the cup. Then, pour the espresso on top of the frothy milk creating a "mark" on the foam. (Macchiato means "marked" in Italian).
5. And the last step is to drizzle the caramel on top.
