Subject: Student Led Conference

"Empowering Learners to Drive Their Own Academic Journey, Celebrate Progress, and Reach New Heights."

Dear Parents,

We are pleased to announce that our upcoming Student-Led Conference (SLC) will be held on 11th November 2026 (Wednesday). This conference serves as a key platform for your child to take ownership of their education by presenting their progress, reflecting on their accomplishments, and sharing areas for future development directly with you.

What is a Student-Led Conference?

A Student-Led Conference is a collaborative meeting where students showcase their progress, reflect on their learning experiences, and set future goals. It empowers students to take ownership of their learning, develop self-awareness, and communicate effectively about their growth. The conference is structured into three parts:

Part 1: Student Voice – The student shares their reflections, accomplishments, and areas for growth.
Part 2: Teacher Voice – The teacher provides insights into the student's progress and strengths.
Part 3: Parent Voice – Parents share their observations and support strategies.

Our Educational Philosophy

Our approach to the SLC integrates the core principles of 'Visible Learning', prioritizing transparent feedback and active engagement. Furthermore, it embeds our 'AchieveWell' initiative alongside the PERMA+3 Framework, ensuring that high academic achievement and emotional well-being work together to build resilient, self-assured learners.
